

THE

DIGITAL MAKER SPACE

PENRITH

COMMS FOR CREATIVES

Communication is a vital part of running any small business.

Many creatives have never learned the basics of effective communication, negotiation and conflict resolution and can find these challenging.

This surprisingly fun and practical workshop goes through the basic elements of communicating with others, including the management of difficult negotiations and how to work towards a “win-win” scenario.

WHEN: Wednesday 29 May 2019

Start 6.30pm – 8.30pm

(doors will be open at 6pm and light refreshments will be catered).

WHERE: The Joan

Ensemble Room 1, 597 High St, Penrith

WHO: Monica Davidson

Director Creative + Business

The workshop is relaxed and informal, you can ask all the questions you’ve never been able to ask before and participants will also be given an opportunity to network and get to know each other.

Places are limited. Please RSVP before Friday 24 May to Celia Bishop on 4732 7838 or email celia.bishop@penrith.city

This workshop is ideal for recent graduates, freelancers and anyone struggling with communication, negotiation and conflict resolution and is relevant no matter what your creative profession.

penrithcity.nsw.gov.au

PENRITH
CITY COUNCIL

 Create NSW
Arts, Screen & Culture

WESTERN SYDNEY UNIVERSITY

TAFE NSW PP&VA